Dodik defends Croatian President who was visiting BiH – SRNA/N1

📅 July 14, 2021

BiH Presidency Chairman Milorad Dodik on Wednesday defended Croatian President Zoran Milanovic, saying that “Bosniak politicians’ attacks against him were unfounded and inappropriate.”

“The manner and vocabulary in which they address the President of the neighbouring state show that Bosniaks don’t care about peace at home or peace in the region, because if they did, they would respect the fact that Zoran Milanovic is the President of the Republic of Croatia and that one of three constituent peoples in BiH is the Croat people,” Dodik said.
